Workplace Architecture + Design took the helm as the primary liaison, delivering comprehensive Interior Design and Contract Administration services, along with Move Management support, throughout the entire journey of crafting Inmar's Headquarters in Innovation Quarter. Leading the charge, Workplace A+D expertly coordinated the project design team, diligently tracked the schedule, and delivered insightful reporting every step of the way. The scope of work extended to sub-contracting and overseeing engineering services, as well as managing construction contracts. With a longstanding partnership, Workplace A+D has continuously supported Inmar through numerous moves and dynamic design reconfigurations, adapting seamlessly to the evolving workplace landscape.
